Lottery Funding in Scotland LOOKING AHEAD

26th September 2001, Heriot Watt University, Edinburgh

Last year Lottery Monitor launched the first of their Scottish National conferences and focused on new programmes for the 2000-2001 period. The conference was a huge success and sold out with over 200 delegates who attended.

This year the Lottery Funding in Scotland conference will look at these programmes and discuss how they have developed within Scotland.

This will be an unique opportunity to hear about:

- The third round of funding programmes by the New Opportunities Fund
- Community First programme being developed by The Community Fund
- Regeneration and the role of the Lottery
- Sport in schools being encouraged by a cash injection of £87m
- The future of the Lottery in Scotland

Workshops will also be held on:

- Social Inclusion
- Ethnic minorities funding
- Sustainability beyond your Lottery grant
- Writing applications for funding

Who should attend:

- Lottery Officers and advisors
- Chairs and directors of finance, economic development, education, leisure, arts and community affairs
- Chairs and directors of regeneration partnerships
- Charity and voluntary sector executives
- Chairs and senior directors from arts, sports and heritage organisations
- Senior managers in Government departments and agencies
- Architecture, construction and accounting advisors
- Principals and Chairs of Governors from colleges and schools
- Senior managers from health trusts and related organisations
- Senior executives in environmental organisations

KEY NOTE SPEAKERS:

- Jackie Baillie,
MSP, Minister for Social Justice
- Allan Wilson,
MSP, Deputy Minister for Sport, the Arts & Culture
- Martin Sime,
Director, Scottish Council for Voluntary Organisations
- Stephen Dunmore,
Chief Executive of the New Opportunities Fund

INCLUDING CONTRIBUTIONS FROM:

- Paul Birgill,
The Scarman Trust
- Malcolm McLean,
Bearhunt
- Ivor Davies,
Sport Scotland
- Kay Caldwell,
Community Fund
- Chris Higgins,
Highlands and Islands Enterprise
- Anne Bonnar,
Bonnar Keenlyside

This conference gets to the very heart of the issues and challenges surrounding Lottery funding in Scotland.

“Extremely useful for practical information exchanges between sessions and good to have top flight speakers - we heard it all ‘straight from the horse’s mouth’”

D.B., Asst Director of Community, Education & Leisure

Circle the 26th September in your diary now and ensure you don't miss out on this invaluable conference.
